

News From the Two's

December 2011

It's Christmas time in the Two's Room. "Hay" and animals fill our sensory table. Sounds of jingle bells often fill our classroom. The thing we like playing with the most is our nativity scene. We especially like to hear the music the nativity scene plays.

We are learning the story of Baby Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. We helped Morris find his pillow and learned that baby Jesus didn't have a pillow. He laid His head on hay.

We made several kinds of Christmas trees. Our favorite is the sticky contact paper and tissue paper tree that is decorating our front window.

Be sure to sign up for the Music Together event that will be held on January 14. Come see what we learn.

Merry Christmas!
